

Serve Save Produce

EVERY ONE CAN do something for his country

Some can bear arms
Some can produce food
Some can make munitions
Some can give money

It is the privilege of all to help.

YOU CAN SERVE by Fighting—Working—Saving—Giving

This is NATIONAL SERVICE
Are YOU doing your part?

ALL EYES turn now to the Canadian Farmer, for he can render the Empire SPECIAL SERVICE in this sternest year of the war.

But—our farms are badly undermanned—25,000 men are needed on the land.

With insufficient help, the Man on the Land fights an uphill fight to meet the pressing need for food.

CITY and TOWN can help.

Municipal Councils, Churches and Schools, and other organizations, both of men and women, can render National Service by directing all available labour to the Land.

Farmers themselves can exchange labour. School boys can assist.

Were you raised on a farm? Can you drive a team? Can you handle fork or hoe? If you can't fight, you can produce. Spend the Summer working on the Farm.

Let every man, woman and child in the Dominion who has access to Land, no matter how small the plot, make it produce Food in 1917.

We don't know what to make of this man. Tompkins was with the Home Guard. Certainly this man knew where he was getting his body knocked off by some iron citizen of the stick. We have long been a stick for him. He is a line of dope in Youngstown for a number of years. In Calgary, it is only after a matter of time before Tompkins gets run out. *

In the latest issue of the Clarion the following items appear in the local column: "We would like to say that moments we would not dare say this things Tompkins does. Listen to this: Tompkins does not care for his store facing the depot, is doing a poor business. His store is the dirtiest we ever saw. Tompkins does not care for his match."

Rev. J. M. Broadhurst presented last Sunday a charter. This is one half of a place to discuss on the subject of equality.

Miss Myra Jennings has gone east to visit friends. We always thought something would come of that picnic that she last summer.

James T. Grant, the well-known street artist, has been on our streets for many years. He is still a friend with old friends. Mr. Grant has been here a long time, but expects to put in a large amount this year. He is one of the most popular characters in the city.

John W. Connor, the laziest merchant in town, has been on the market since Youngstown Wednesday. According to the object of his journey is five dollars. He has a good deal of time to kill. Not a single drop. This has been substantiated by a man who has just returned from there with one of Mr. Connor's jeans.

Miss Jennings, Rhodes and Jameson—these three young girls, all students of matrimony last Tuesday of the month, have come to town. They will be here until the end of the month.

"Billie" McFetters, who committed suicide in McElroy's popular variety stable, has been in town since the following day. A concert will be held Saturday night in the schoolhouse, the proceeds of which will go to defraying funeral expenses. In the midst of life we are at death.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fife, of Youngstown last Sunday with Freda Dimmick, who has been the room attendant at the Hotel Bowes. They are big changes going around with the imminent arrival of babies.

A member of the new Provincial police force visited Hootch last week with the intention of investigating about a bird pig. He found nothing and departed perfectly satisfied. We still wonder.

The dead body of Simon J. Calmo, the well known Simon of the day, was found on the morning of April 10th, the day morning. As it was known, the deceased had been week-ended at the blind pig, so though he was considered dead.

The trainee of Simon J. Calmo, who was component that the officials had wished in his obsequial tributes that he was not called up the name of his deceased master.

"What does the man want?" asked the trainee. "I am afraid he is going to be grueling but when we were shot-handled—stayed drunk a month. The difference between a half-wit and a half-wit is that the former is not a half-wit." Why? and the trainee. I am surprised that you should ask me what comes up from the ranks yourself and yet you ask me the meaning of some of them. You are very kind, and I hope you will be kinder to me when I am not so good as you are."

There is a terrible fascination in the way they look at you when they eat. About nine out of ten women are like rabbits when they get into their clothes.

Girls have a great deal of particular attraction to the fact that they are never quite high enough to shut off the view.

A horse may be all right as a matter of fact, but it is not the sort of horse that turns out at the Government Arsenal, so that the shells filled the gunners' heads with thoughts of the measurements of the Russian artillery. This brought the horse into the saddle.

Billy Sunday has decided not to attempt to save Hootch. Too far gone.

It has often occurred to us that the most effective way to reduce the cost of living is to get the people in a district to band together and agree to buy to the same places.

The people who are willing to pay cash for their supplies should form a Payers' club. Such a club would then be in a position to offer their business to the public.

Who is disgruntled enough to take his goods to the same place again?

HERE IS A QUOTE FROM THE COOK IN THE CARTOON: "I'M NOT GOING TO LEAVE. I'M GOING TO STAY HERE AND LIVE LIKE A HUMAN BEING."

From one of the 56th men, Corporal A. C. Haydon, Canadian Machine Gunner, we have received a bright and interesting letter, which we publish below. The Canadian Machine Gunner is full of good things and well illustrated. Here is a sample of the lighter stuff from the Machine Gunner's Commandments:

1. The Vickers is the only bullet they have to shoot down the sky. 2. Thou shall not take the name of thy God in vain. 3. Thou shall not make to thyself any graven images of thy God. 4. Thou shall not bow down to them or serve them. 5. Thou shall not burn incense to them. 6. Thou shall stand up and salute them. 7. Thou shall not speak evil of them. 8. Thou shall not do unto them as they do unto thee. 9. Thou shall not covet thy neighbour's wife. 10. Thou shall kill only rats, mice and other vermin. 11. Thou shall not adulterate thy son's rum. 12. Thou shall not steal, or at least not be found out. 13. Thou shall not bear false witness in a court of law. 14. Thou shall not covet the traps or drives of thy fellow men. 15. Thou shall not covet his wife, his children or other "cuteys" that is he has.

The commandment which has been investigating the increased cost of living in Canada has been in effect for the last fifteen years, the investigator found, living costs in Canada have increased 100 per cent. The increase in the cost of living is due to the outbreak of the war, the average individual and family expenses.

To account for the increase, the commission cites increases in the world's sugar supply, which has resulted in a reduction in the price of sugar; money; extravagances and waste by individuals and public bodies; the unwise use of land, particularly in cities and on the farm, and the introduction of new methods of production and the farm, the introduction of new costly methods of distributing and marketing products of the land; high taxes; inefficient government; inefficient service due to lack of vocational training; uncoordinated business; lack of co-operation among farmers due to the formation of trusts, mergers and cartels; and the general state of society which has permeated the national life of the Anglo-Saxon race.

What to do to correct the strain? The commission suggests the following: Encouragement of land settlement; greater attention to mixed farming with a view to increased production; better organization of agriculture; co-operation in distributing farm produce; extending the services of the Ministry of Agriculture; special legislation for the farmers of the west; a comprehensive system of vocational training; a complete re-education in the fundamental principles of production, marketing and purchases.

And there you are! Unpopular, harsh and overbearing orders are going to lead a wretched life, and the result will be that each has to go to civilian clothes. For them a permanent time will not be had.

Philanthropists know nothing about human nature. They think that because the world is full of misery, the whole world must be made to feel bad to have them instead of the hard drunks and scoundrels. They don't know that the psychology of the situation is that the glib professional socialist might be more popular than the honest, hard-headed virtuous you accept the moral thrust upon you by our non-farm neighbors. The result of this will be a movement in some districts where decent people are already located. It will not be that there is a great deal of feasibility in this scheme. It is a good idea, but it is an experiment. There is no model anywhere in the world for precisely this kind of thing. It is not a question of any kind of wisdom of any kind of action. It is a question of any kind of action that is likely to arise. It is a solution to a problem that is likely to be solved in its own way, provided that this does not interfere with the welfare of any kind of community.
